Race Information

The 3rd Annual Natomas May Day Run/Walk will raise much needed funds for Stanford Settlement Neighborhood Center, a social-service nonprofit vital to the Natomas landscape. This collective effort and all race proceeds will serve to keep the organization's programs in operation: Children's Program, Teen Center, Senior Center, Emergency Assistance and Community Development.

Keeping true to the mission of helping to build healthy communities through individual, family, and neighborhood services, this event is designed to encourage participation from all ages. Come join us for our post-race festival to gain information about health and wellness.
